INVENTORY DESIGN FOR SKYRORA SITE

In the coming months, Skyrora will be opening our first ever online shop. The initial stock for the online shop will consist of a range of t-shirt designs, and we want you to be a part of Skyrora's first ever collection.

Skyrora are looking for a never-seen-before, fresh design that can either be printed or embroidered onto a plain black t-shirt as a part of our merchandise range, and we want to give our space fans the opportunity to get creative and to see what they can come up with!

The winner will receive a Skyrora jacket, a VIP goody bag, a t-shirt featuring their very own design, and of course their design will be featured on Skyrora's online shop alongside accreditation for their artwork. The winning design will be converted into graphics that will be screen printed or embroidered onto a plain black t-shirt which will be available for sale as a part of Skyrora's online shop.

Your starting point could be an image of any of our rockets which can all be found on the Skyrora website at www.skyrora.com, or perhaps you could take inspiration from the fact that we will be flying from rugged Scottish landscapes by 2023.

We cannot wait to see what you can come up with!
